OBJECTIVE

Film isn't just my passion, it's my life. I strive to open the eyes of viewers through the lens of another human being. I am determined to make big films for mainstream audiences.

---

FUNCTIONAL SUMMARY

I have wanted to be a filmmaker for as long as I can remember. I have always strived to push myself and perfect my talents. Growing up without much, I had to learn a lot of jobs in the film industry to achieve the perfection I sought. I completed my first feature film with $2000 for production and raised $4000 for post-production, which serves as a proof of concept. I am the definition of determined.
